(Moving Department)

This Supply Chain procedure is reviewed at least once a year by the Management of Tokyo Freight Services, updated, when necessary, communicated to Tokyo Freight Services staff, and made available in our website and internal processes and procedures as part of Tokyo Freight Services' QMS and FAIM requirements.

PURPOSE

This procedure is established to:

- ✓ describe the processes we use in evaluating, selecting and monitoring service providers for our international moves
- ✓ to demonstrate how we control and guarantee a quality performance in our Supply Chain.

SCOPE

This Supply Chain procedure is applicable whether Tokyo Freight Services acts as a booker, origin agent, or destination agent.

RESPONSIBILITY

The Top Management of Tokyo Freight Services shall ensure that the implementation of this procedure is communicated throughout the organization.

Dept. heads/Section in-Charge

The Moving Manager and/or Operation Manager in the Moving Department of Tokyo Freight Services shall ensure that this Supply Chain procedure is not only communicated and implemented effectively throughout their respective processes but also, a thorough review procedure is carried out once a year to guarantee a quality performance among its service providers.

All Staff Members in the Moving Department

All staff involved in the moving activities of Tokyo Freight Services shall adhere to this procedure.

1. SERVICE PROVIDER MANAGEMENT

Tokyo Freight Services can either act as a Booker, origin agent, and destination agent. We provide a one-stop logistical solution where all services provided are in-house such as:

- Transportation: We use our own owned and registered vehicles and drivers for collections and pickup.
- Warehousing: The warehouse we use for the storage of goods is leased, supervised, and managed by the company's resources.
- Freight services: We have our freight forwarding operational personnel to carry out the forwarding services needed in shipping goods both by sea and air. This department handles the cargo booking with the chosen liners or carrier/s and other internal coordination required among consolidators and forwarders.
- Customs clearance: We have our clearance license and company-sponsored customs clearing agents assigned in all ports in Qatar – Hamad port, Hamad airport, and Ruwais port - to process all cargo clearances in/out of Qatar.

Selection, Approval, and Evaluation of Main Service Providers

The main service providers of Tokyo Freight Services in the removal activities are the origin/destination agents. They are selected and/or approved to handle the job based on the below considerations:

- ✓ A company must be a member of the same network, i.e, FIDI, IAM, WBN where Tokyo Freight Services is also a member.
- ✓ Mutual business cooperation has been initiated in the past.
- ✓ Price competitiveness.
- ✓ Quality level and performance.

Internal Process

The Move Coordinator of Tokyo Freight Services can check for the agent's list from the directory of a network. However, the Coordinator can only send rate requests and other inquiries to a Service Provider after verifying that the said company meets the criteria mentioned above. This can be either done by checking the Flotilla system whether a company is a registered and approved supplier/agent, or by confirming it with the Operation Manager.

Should there be a service failure encountered with the selected supplier/agent, the move coordinator shall discuss it internally, and accordingly, the Department Manager or Operation Manager shall investigate the case and define the action/prevention plans among involved parties.

It is also imperative that the customer/transferee is notified of any service failure encountered during the duration of the move by writing.

In case of unprofessional conduct and very poor performance shown by the selected supplier/agent, the moving coordinators/operations shall be refrained from using their services again, unless otherwise the said supplier/agent has demonstrated and implemented corrective and preventive measures to avoid recurrence of the problem.
